SCHLEY REMAINS IN IGNORANCE

Admiral Evans Admits Schley Was Kept in Dark About Secret Signals—Sigsbee
Fails to Clear Mystery—Intimation
That Sampson Was Warned—Schley's
Splendid Conduct in Action.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 4.—The proceedings of the Court of Inquiry to investigate the conduct of Admiral Schley during the Santiago naval campaign are rapidly progressing. In the last four days eleven witnesses have been examined. The next important thing thus far developed is that information furnished by the navy department to Sampson and the captains of the four scouting ships in regard to the presence of the Spanish fleet in Santiago harbor was not communicated to Schley, although many of the officers of these vessels were in daily contact with his fleet.

Rear Admiral Evans, who as captain commanded the battleship Iowa during the Santiago campaign, was one of the most important witnesses called. His testimony covered the entire period from the time the Iowa left the port of Key West on the 20th of May, 1898, until the 5th of July, when Admiral Evans testified he had a conversation with Admiral Schley concerning the battle of the 3d. He described in detail the principal battle off Santiago, and also gave particulars concerning the bombardment of the Colon on the 31st of May.

On his cross-examination by Mr. Rayner, Admiral Evans said he had left Key West with the Iowa for Cienfuegos on May 20, and that he knew before leaving that port that a secret code had been arranged for communication with the insurgents on shore at Cienfuegos, as Captain Chadwick had given him this information.

"Then, did you inform Commodore Schley that this system of signals had been arranged?"
"I did not. It never entered my mind that he did not know it."
"Upon what ground did you suppose that Commodore Schley knew it?"

"He was the commanding officer of the squadron."
Admiral Evans also testified at great length in regard to the famous loop of the Brooklyn, saying that at one time the Texas had to come to a dead stop because the Brooklyn was within 100 yards directly ahead of her. He also said that official chart of the battle showing the Brooklyn not to have been closer than one-third of a mile from the Texas was absolutely wrong.

Commander Miller read from the collector's log to show that the Iowa, the Massachusetts and the Castine had been coaled on the 23d and 24th. The sea on the 25th, he said, was nasty. On the 26th the coiler was making from 6 to 11 knots and the sea was smoother. Vessels could have coaled that day. He had objected to having two battleships coaled as they had a peculiar rolling motion and might have crushed the coiler between them. In response to the court Commander Miller said he could have coaled any of the ships on the 25th, though not comfortably.

Captain Theodore F. Jewell, who was commander of the cruiser Minneapolis, said that he had first fallen in with the flying squadron on the evening of May 26. Captain Leamy quoted from Admiral Schley's letter to the senate committee on naval affairs, dated February 18, 1899, saying: "After having been informed by the scouts commanded by such officers as Sigsbee, Jewell and Wise, that, although they had been off Santiago for a week, they had seen nothing of Cervera's fleet since it left Curacao," and asked whether he had given to Admiral Schley this information or any other information concerning the Spanish fleet.

The witness replied: "I gave him no information with reference to that subject whatever."

Capt. Sigsbee, formerly of the Maine and afterward of the scouting ship St. Paul, testified that the first positive knowledge of the presence of the Spanish fleet in Santiago harbor was on the morning of the 29th of May, 1898, twenty minutes after the Colon had been sighted in the harbor by Schley's squadron, although he had been cruising off the harbor since the 21st of May. He did not give Schley on the 26th, when he first met that officer upon the arrival of the squadron, any definite information of the whereabouts of the Spanish fleet, although he reported to him certain events which he thought ought to have indicated that the fleet was inside the harbor. He reported, however, that on the 29th he chased some steamers, which he thought were the Spaniards approaching Santiago. Admiral Sampson, in a report to the Navy Department, apparently quoted Capt. Sigsbee as saying that Schley was blockading twenty-five miles from the harbor of Santiago. Capt. Sigsbee positively denied ever having made such statement.

All of the commanders of the scouts have now been on the stand, and although all of them received the dispatch saying the Spanish fleet

A WOMAN MASQUERADES AS A MAN

In Her Last Illness It Was Revealed That "Mr. Hall" Was a Female.

New York, Sept. 30.—The strange story of a woman who preferred to pass for a man was revealed by the death of Miss Carolina Hall, of Boston, a cabin passenger on the steamship Citta Di Torino, which arrived from Naples and other ports on Sunday. On the passenger list Miss Hall appeared as Mr. Chas. Wind-hall, and with him on the ship was Mrs. Hall. It was not until the former was stricken with a mortal illness that the ship's surgeons made the discovery that the supposed man was a woman. Before that no one suspected that "Mr. Hall" was not a man and "he" and his wife were received as such. The woman addressed her companion as "Miss Hall" and spoke of her as "my wife."

The woman was 39 years of age and is said to have been the only daughter of a Col. Hall, a well-to-do retired army officer living in Boston. She was of slender build, medium height and with a short crop of light hair cut pompadour. She dressed well and carried herself with the air of a man. Her voice and gestures were masculine. After "Mr. Hall" was taken ill, the ship's surgeons were called in and then the secret came out. The patient begged that it be kept, but the surgeons were forced to tell it to the captain, who, however, did not disclose it to the twenty-five cabin passengers. The surgeons said the patient was suffering with consumption.

A vessel docked at this port Sunday and the young woman died at 2:30 a. m., today. During the day the coroner's office was notified and a coroner's physician visited the ship and held an autopsy on the body. After this the other woman telegraphed to Col. Hall, in Boston. All day long in the saloon of the steamer, "Mrs. Hall" sat by the dead. She was there tonight waiting for the dead woman's relatives to come for the body. She is an Italian of about 35 years and rather good-looking. She cannot speak English and did not seem willing to tell all the strange story. It was learned, however, that she had known "Mr. Hall" for some years and was well aware that her companion was a woman.

This evening a telegram from Albert J. Hall was received abroad the steamship for Miss Carolina Hall, saying the sender would come to New York. It was dated Boston Highlands. It was learned tonight through the Italian woman that Miss Hall had resided abroad about ten years and that her companion, Guiseppina Porriana, had known her about three years. She thought men could get along in the world better than women and therefore adopted male attire. She traveled thus with the other for two years, and as she was an artist, went about the art centers painting and working at her profession. Being a good rifle shot Miss Hall is said to have entered several tournaments and won prizes. When she decided to come home she asked the Italian woman to accompany her.

On hearing of the slaughter Colonel Isaac Derussy, of the Eleventh Infantry, started for the scene immediately with a battalion. The body of Captain Connell had been taken to the hospital, saturated with kerosene and partly burned. Forty-five bodies had been burned in a trench, leaving seven unaccounted for. The charred remains of many were recovered. In many instances the bodies had been mutilated. Three hundred Macabees will also be dispatched to the scene of the massacre on board the Legation, which is delayed by a typhoon.

Capt. Edwin V. Bokmiller, of the Ninth Infantry, reports that Gen. Hughes is assembling a force to attack the insurgents. The insurgents captured all the stores and ammunition of the company, and all the rifles except twenty-six.

News of the disastrous fight between troops of the Ninth Infantry and the insurgents in the island of Samar yesterday was sent promptly by Gen. Hughes, commanding that island, to Gen. Chaffee at Manila, and by him transmitted to the War Department. It reached the department during the early hours yesterday, and Adjutant General Corbin, realizing its importance, at once made it public, after sending a copy to the White House. Gen. Chaffee's dispatch, which agrees with the Associated Press dispatch, is as follows:

Gen. Chaffee's Brief Report.
"Manila, Sept. 29.
"Adjutant General, Washington.
"Hughes reports following from Bassey, Southern Samar: United States Infantry—eleven wounded; remainder company killed. Insurgents secured all company supplies and all rifles except twelve. Company was attacked during breakfast, morning September 28; company seventy-two strong; officers, Thomas W. Connell, captain; Edward A. Bumpus, first lieutenant; Dr. R. S. Griswold, major surgeon, escaped.

"OHAFFEE."
Later dispatches from Gen. Chaffee confirmed the newspaper reports that the officers of the company were killed.

The news created a sensation in official circles. It was the first reverse that has occurred for a long time. Still the officials were not unprepared for news of just this character from Samar, where the revolution started by Aguinaldo still continues. Samar is a country about as large as the State of Ohio, and the American forces of occupation number in all about 2,000 and 2,500 men. These are distributed among various posts in the island, a large number being located at the more important centers.

Island Not Recently Occupied.
Spain never made any effort to occupy Samar, and it only has been for probably three months past that taken work. The latest report taken by Gen. Hughes to the War Department was that the number of insurgent rifles on the island aggregated about 800. The Filipinos carried on a guerrilla warfare, and operations against them were difficult. The disaster to Company C, of the Ninth Infantry, occurred, it is believed, while it was engaged in an expedition to clear the country of roving bands of these insurgents. The fact that the Americans were attacked while at breakfast indicates the daring and pluck of the insurgents.

Immediately upon receipt of the dispatch Adjutant General Corbin cabled Gen. Chaffee to send a complete report of the fight and a list of the casualties.

A well-known official of the government in speaking of this outbreak against the American forces in Samar said he regarded it as a complete report of the fight and a list of the casualties.

Manila, Sept. 29.—A disastrous fight between United States troops and insurgents occurred yesterday in the island of Samar, near Balangiga. A large body of insurgents attacked Company C, Ninth Infantry, only twenty-four members of the company escaping. All the others are reported to have been killed.

The company were at breakfast when attacked and made a determined resistance; but the overwhelming numbers of the insurgents compelled them to retreat.

Of the survivors, who have arrived at Bassey, eleven are wounded. According to the latest returns the strength of the company was seventy-two. Capt. Thomas W. Connell, First Lieut. Edward A. Bumpus, and Dr. R. S. Griswold, surgeon, officers of the Company, are among the number killed.

Late advices give horrifying details of the slaughter. It seems that the president of the town, claiming to be friendly, led the assault in person.

COTTON CROP SMALL.

Condition Lowest in Ten Years—Loss of Ten Points Since August 24th.

Washington, Oct. 3.—The monthly report of the agricultural department of the statistics shows the average condition of cotton September 25 to have been 61.4 as compared with 71.4 on the 24th of the preceding month, 67 on Oct. 1, 1900, 62.4 at the corresponding date in 1899 and 70.3, the mean of the October averages of the last ten years.

Rarely has so general an impairment of condition been reported as the department's various crop reporting agencies unite in hearing witness to this month. There is a decline of 9 points in Virginia and North Carolina, 13 in South Carolina, Florida and Tennessee, 8 in Georgia and Louisiana, 10 in Alabama and Arkansas, 22 in Mississippi, 5 in Texas, 11 in Oklahoma, 18 in Indian Territory and 14 in Missouri.

The averages of condition in the different States show reports as follows: Virginia 73, North Carolina 63, South Carolina 67, Georgia 73, Florida 65, Alabama 65, Mississippi 66, Louisiana 72, Texas 51, Arkansas 51, Tennessee 60, Missouri 61, Oklahoma 57, Indian Territory 61.

While the condition in Georgia and Louisiana is still one point above the ten year averages of those States, the reports from every other cotton growing State and Territory compare unfavorably with the average October conditions for any considerable series of years. The extent to which the various States fall below their respective ten year averages is as follows:

Virginia 3 points, South Carolina 2, North Carolina and Florida 8, Alabama 7, Mississippi 4, Tennessee 11, and Texas and Arkansas each 18. The condition in Indian Territory is 9 points, and in Oklahoma 16 points below the mean of the last five years, and in Missouri 19 points below the mean of the last eight years.

Austin, Texas, Oct. 3.—Agricultural Commissioner Johns stated today that in his opinion the Texas cotton crop this year will fall short at least 800,000 bales from the crop of last season. It is estimated that the crop this year will not exceed 2,335,000 bales, due to the boll weevil and extensive drought in parts of the State.

The Episcopal Convention.
San Francisco, Oct. 2.—The Triennial Convention of Episcopal bishops, clergy and laity was inaugurated at 7:30 a. m., with the celebration of the Holy Communion in the local Episcopal churches. At 11 a. m., the Convention was formally opened with religious exercises.

The convocation sermon was preached by Bishop Morris, of Oregon, the senior attending bishop. The bishop quoted from a speech lately delivered by President Roosevelt at Denver, in which the then Vice-President showed how slow the statements of the early days of our country's history were to realize that the great West was to become an inhabited and civilized land within any reasonable period. This ignorance was reflected in the Church. Opportunities were neglected because of it and the consequent loss to the Church is irreparable.

TWO HANGED TO A TRELLIS.
The Alleged Murderers of a Printer put to Death by a Mob.

Shelbyville, Ky., Oct. 2.—Jimbo Fields, aged 16, and Clarence Garfield, aged 18, both colored, were lynched here early this morning for the alleged murder of Willie Hart, a printer, who was stoned to death on Saturday night, September 22nd. The boys were taken from the jail and swung from the Cando trellis within 500 yards of the jail. The mob went to the jail, and demanded the keys from the jailor, but he refused to surrender them. The doors of the jail were battered down. The prisoners were removed almost before they had time to realize what was happening. The work was done quietly, and the mob disappeared without its members identifying themselves. Hart's body was found in a path leading from the house of the mother of Jimbo Fields.

Prince Chun Thanks the Kaiser for His "Gracious Reception."
Berlin, Oct. 2.—Prince Chun, before leaving German territory, sent long dispatches to Emperor William, thanking him for the "gracious reception, extended to the exploratory mission, for the hospitality and the decorations bestowed upon him," and expressing "a hope that the powerful German empire may promote the culture and development of China by a gracious show of mercy toward the Chinese dynasty and toward Germany, with mutual benefit of relations with China."

He had scarcely gotten away when news arrived that the German mission station near Tientsin had been devastated by rebels. The German consul at Canton immediately requested the Chinese authorities to take steps to punish the perpetrators of the outrage. The latest information is that all but one escaped and reached Hong Kong.

The Royal Month and the Royal Disease.
Sudden changes of weather are especially trying, and probably to none more so than to the scrofulous and consumptive. The progress of scrofula during a normal October is commonly great. We never think of scrofula—its bunches, cutaneous eruptions, and wasting of the bodily substance—without thinking of the great good many sufferers from it have derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla, whose radical and permanent cures of this one disease are enough to make it the most famous medicine in the world. There is probably not a city or town where Hood's Sarsaparilla has not proved its merit in more homes than one, in arresting and completely eradicating scrofula, which is almost as serious and as much to be feared as its near relative—consumption.

It was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H., "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. CONFEDERATE ARMY TITLES.
General Thom. F. Toon a Familiar Example of a Quasi System.

From the Sunny South.
The new state superintendent of public instruction of North Carolina, Thomas F. Toon, has a very interesting personality. He is spoken of as Col. Toon and as Gen. Toon, for he was a colonel, then a brigadier general, then again a colonel. This was under an odd provision that authorized the appointment of certain colonels as temporary brigadier generals. Gen. Toon has played in my hands a large pocket-book which he carried on his person during the war. It contains his commissions, also the last pay he received, etc. His notification as to the brigadier generalcy is written on a letter size sheet of very thin and poor paper, and is as follows:

Headquarters Department Northern Virginia, June 4, 1864.—Extract Special Order No. 114: The following named officer, having been appointed to the temporary rank of the position indicated, are assigned to duty as set forth in the order. Thomas F. Toon, of the temporary command of Johnston's brigade, 2nd division, 2nd corps.

By command of Gen. R. E. Lee.
R. H. T. A. S. General.
Brig. Gen. Toon through Gen. Early. Gen. Toon had certainly as colonel of the Twentieth North Carolina Infantry won his right to a generalcy. He became colonel July 25, 1863, as appears by the special order of Gen. Iversen: "Capt. Thomas F. Toon, Company A, Twentieth N. C. T., having been passed by the board of examiners of this brigade and recommended for the colonelcy of his regiment, the judgment of the board is approved and Capt. Toon is hereby directed to assume immediately the command of the Twentieth N. C. T." He thus "jumped" the lieutenant colonel and major and several captains. His second commission as colonel was dated May 30, 1864. He protested and the date was properly fixed as July 26, 1863. His letter is covered with interesting endorsements and signatures, among those of Gen. Robert D. Johnston, John B. Gordon, R. E. Lee and John Blair Hoge, A. A. G., in the office of the Secretary of War.

The commissions are on letter sheets of blue paper. They begin with the words "You are hereby informed that the president, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, has appointed you," etc. "We are appointing to the temporary rank of brigadier general, P. A. C. S., under act approved May 31, 1864," is dated June 2, 1864, and the rank is from May 31. "Should you accept you will report for duty to Gen. R. E. Lee."

Gen. Toon commanded Johnston's brigade until January 28, 1865, when, as stated, he was recommended colonel of the Twentieth, his old command. It is quite odd to hear one comrade address him as general and the next one call him colonel.

Gen. Toon was wounded three times at Sharpsburg; first in the arm, then in the leg, but these two wounds did not check him. The third broke a bone in the leg. One of the interesting things in his pocket-book is a Confederate railway pass; another a regular railway ticket.

He was last year elected state superintendent of public instruction, and is devoting himself to the state's educational advancement.

It is not every day a man finds what he's looking for, but the following from the Knoxville Journal comes to us without looking for the sentiments were ours before. But as we, who believe in honesty in the ballot box are somewhat strangers in a strange land here in the south, it is very refreshing to know that there are others who are subject to like passions as we are and are not ashamed of their feelings to give expression to our feelings:

The Journal says:
"The man who will stuff a ballot box, who will make a false count of the votes cast by the people, who falsifies the returns of an election, or who is a party to such things in any way, who seizes election officials to do such things, or who falls to prevent the crimes when he has the power to, or who accepts an office that comes to him through such infamous methods, is as much an enemy to his country and to its free institutions as the assassin who fires the shot that took the life of William McKinley, and robbed the nation of its chosen and beloved president. This is no extreme statement, but the plain, universal truth.—Chatham Citizen, Sept. 25.

What is the difference between a "South hater" and a "North hater"? If one is a scoundrel, pray tell us, what the other is? For either to talk about the other, is a case of "the kettle calling the pot black," and displays more gall than brains."—Hickory Times-Mercury.

PROWLERS
AT TOMB.FIRED ON BY THE GUARD
AT THE CANTON SEP-
ULCHER.

SOLDIER IS STABBED BY VANDAL.

New Faces in Hushes and Fired When the Challenger was Ignored—Immediately
Attacked by Second Man. Cost Stabbed
by Assaultant's Knife Guard Alarm and the Counters were Stabbed in Vain.

Canton, Ohio, Sept. 29.—A strange story comes tonight from West Lawn Cemetery, where a company of regulars from Fort Wayne, Mich., are guarding the vault in which the body of the late President McKinley lies.

It is to the effect that the guard on duty on top of the vault fired a shot at one man, who refused to heed his challenge, that the shot was diverted by another man who appeared from another direction, and that an effort was made to stab the guard.

Military regulations prevent either the officers or the men of the post from being quoted on any matter connected with their service, and for this reason Capt. Biddle, who is in command, was obliged to decline to be quoted at the camp to-night. He will make a full report to his superiors at once.

Reliable authorities made the following statement:

Watched Face Twenty Minutes.
Private Deprend was on guard duty on top of the vault at a point commanding the entrance below and the approach from the rear, and the man approached from the rear. Shortly before 7:30 he saw what he took to be the face of a man peering from behind a tree about forty feet from his post. He watched it for twenty minutes, he says, and at 7:45 saw the man hurry to a tree ten feet nearer. He challenged the man to halt, but this was not heeded, and the fellow approached nearer.

Deprend leveled his gun and aimed to shoot for effect, but just at that instant another man who came toward him from the opposite side caught the gun, threw it up, and the bullet was spent in the air. This same man struck Deprend on the right side of the abdomen with a knife or other sharp weapon, cutting an "L" shaped incision an inch and a half long each way, and a smaller one in his blouse.

The flesh was not broken, but was bruised under the cuts in the clothing. Deprend in the struggle fell and rolled down the side of the vault. Lieut. Ashbridge, officer of the day, was in front of the vault, and rushed to the top on hearing the shot, but the men made good their escape. All members of the company on hearing the shot hurried to the vault, and besides searching the cemetery, the guard was increased.

One Man Was Mauled.
Deprend is a recruit, enlisted in New York four months ago. He is said to be an excellent soldier and to have a fine record with his officers. He says the man who attacked him was masked, but that the first one he saw was not masked. He says the latter carried a white package in his right hand and something that glittered in his left.

Since the incident stories have been told in camp of some incendiary conversations overheard in the crowds that have visited the cemetery, including one to day alleging that some stranger said: "Lots of people would like to see this whole thing blown up."

There are seventy soldiers at the cemetery, twenty of whom are constantly on guard duty about the vault and camp.

LYNCHED IN HELENA.
Man who Assaulted a Child Hanged to a Telegraph Pole in the Montana City.

Helena, Mont., Oct. 2.—James Edward Brady, the man who assaulted Ida Pugley, five years old, in Helena, yesterday, was this morning, about 1:30 o'clock, taken from the jail by the mob and hanged to a telegraph pole in the Haymarket Square, about three blocks from the jail. The crowd was orderly and after the man had been hanged it quickly dispersed.

There were about 200 men engaged in the affair and they were all masked. They attacked the jail door with a battering ram, and it soon yielded. On gaining admittance, they demanded at the point of a gun the keys of the jailor or threatened if he did not yield the man they would kill him. The jailor then got the man out of his cell and he was given to the mob. When they first took him Brady said: "What is it, gentlemen?"

The march to the hanging place was quiet. Brady was given a chance to say a word. He declared that they had the wrong man, although he had been positively identified by his victim and a score of other persons who had seen him with the child. He also asked that some money that was due from the Montana Central Railroad be sent to a niece and then he was pulled up. The end of the rope was tied to a pole and the crowd dispersed. Later Sheriff McConnell cut the body down and placed it in a coffin. There will be an investigation.

What is the difference between a "South hater" and a "North hater"? If one is a scoundrel, pray tell us, what the other is? For either to talk about the other, is a case of "the kettle calling the pot black," and displays more gall than brains."—Hickory Times-Mercury.

To Skeptical Asthmatics.
The truly marvelous cures of Asthma which have already been effected by Dr. Rudolph Schiffmann, certainly call for notice. His preparation, (Schiffmann's Asthma Cure) not only gives instant relief in the most stubborn and obstinate cases, but positively cures, in proof of which, he has written the town clerk at Cavalier, N. D., "Mr. W. Scraper," says: "I was troubled with asthma for 20 years, about 8 years ago started to use your Asthma Cure, and have not had an attack for six years."

Schiffmann's Asthma Cure can be obtained of all Druggists at 50c and $1.00 per package, or by writing direct to Dr. Schiffmann Box 804, St. Paul, Minn.

THE STATE FAIR.

From the entries being made from so many other states, in so many of the important departments, it seems that our next State Fair, beginning the 23d inst., will assume much the dignity and importance of an interstate contest. While this is gratifying in many respects, among other things as indicating the growing attention that our state is receiving from others, it also is very suggestive to our own people. It means for us that we, too, must put to the front the evidences of North Carolina skill in the arts and sciences, and improvements in the various fields of industry. Exhibits from other states will possess high merit, of course, or they would not be brought here. We believe that North Carolina can at least equal anything, in any department, that any other state can produce, and of course we will be rejoiced to know that we excel in any or all. Certainly a favorable opportunity to test these matters will be offered at the State Fair, and it is gratifying to know that our people, from the mountains to the sea, are coming to the contest. The entries in every department are not only far more numerous than heretofore, but it is insisted by many of those who have made entries that their exhibits will be of superior quality to any heretofore made.

As regards amusements—and these are essential to the well regulated occasion of the sort, these will far surpass in variety and quality anything that has ever before appeared on the grounds. The Fair managers have spared no efforts or care in selecting from the world of things offered only those things fit to be seen. Therefore those who wish for recreation and amusement can find a week's real pleasure and rest at the Fair, while all will learn something from the exhibits of the improvements in the industry and the intelligence of the Old North State have made.

There is Great Interest.

Mr. J. W. Stephenson, of Smithfield, was a visitor to Raleigh the other day for the purpose of talking with Gen. W. R. Cox about the coming State Fair. He is so much interested in the success of the Fair that he left both a bank director's meeting and a cotton mill directors' meeting to come to Raleigh. He says that there is great interest in Johnston county and that great numbers of the people will be here during Fair week.

Pertinent Press Comment.

We think the Union Republican, Chatham Citizen and CAUCASIAN are making it rather hot for Governor Aycock and Senator Simmons. Let us hope that these gentlemen, as they are now at the pie counter, will not encourage even the appearance of anarchy in the next State campaign. Let's wait and see. If they do try it again, it will be their conscience for it in this life, and in the world to come, a matter for them and their God to settle. We do not believe the good people of the State—even good Democrats—will sanction red-shirtism again.—The Times-Mercury.

And again the editor of the Charlotte Observer calls Joe Daniels a liar. Daniels has gotten accustomed to this kind of thing long since. Spring something new on him.—The Times-Mercury.

It comes with poor grace for papers who sanction red shirt campaigns and election frauds to become incensed when they are charged with influencing the minds of assassins. It is a much milder charge than the self confessed crime of red-shirtism; the former is only the matter of the killing of a man, while the latter is destroying free government, therefore, is treasonous.—The Union Republican.

CANCER

Sufferers from this horrible malady nearly always inherit it—not necessarily from the parents, but may be from some remote ancestor, for Cancer often runs through several generations. This deadly poison may lay dormant in the blood for years, or until you reach middle life, then the first little sore or ulcer makes its appearance—or a swollen gland in the breast, or some other part of the body, gives the first warning.

To cure Cancer thoroughly and permanently all the poisonous virus must be eliminated from the blood—every vestige of it driven out. This S. S. S. does, and is the only medicine that can reach deep-seated, obstinate blood troubles like this. When all the poison has been forced out of the system the Cancer heals, and the disease never returns.

Cancer begins often in a small way, as the following letter from Mrs. Shirer shows:

"A small pimple came on my jaw about an inch below the ear on the left side of my face. It grew me no pain or inconvenience, and I should have forgotten about it had it not begun to inflame and itch; it would bleed a little, then scab over, but could not heal. This continued for some time, when my husband, seeing it well, becoming very painful. The Cancer he said to cut and spread, until it was as large as a half dollar when I heard of S. S. S. and determined to give it a fair trial, and it was remarkable what a wonderful effect it had from the very beginning; the sore began to heal and after taking a few bottles disappeared entirely. This was two years ago; there are still no signs of the Cancer, and my general health continues good.—Mrs. E. Shirer, La Platte, Mo.

S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and the only one guaranteed purely vegetable. Send for our free book on Cancer, containing valuable and interesting information about this disease, and write our physicians about your case. We make no charge for medical advice.

MRS. R. C. RIVERS.

Funeral Services Held from the Residence Monday Morning.

Mrs. R. C. Rivers died Sunday morning at 8 o'clock after a critical illness of several weeks. She had been an invalid for years and the angel of death came as an unexpected messenger to bear her away from the suffering she had so patiently and heroically endured.

Mrs. Rivers, nee Harriet Wynn Norman, was born near Aurora, Beaufort county. Her childhood was spent in the adjoining county of Hyde. Later she removed with her sister, Mrs. J. T. B. Hoover, to Tolant in Wilson county. In 1894 she was married to Mr. R. C. Rivers. Together they removed to Raleigh and have since made this city their home. Mrs. Rivers came of pious parentage and early in life became a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. Her life was one of devotion to duty and adorned her profession by a godly walk. She was a dutiful child, a loving mother, a devoted wife, and an exemplary Christian. She leaves a daughter, a fond husband, a sister and other relatives to mourn her loss. Her relatives present to pay the last tribute of love and respect are Mr. and Mrs. J. T. B. Hoover, of Henderson; Mr. F. H. Hoover, of Roanoke, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Twisdale, of Middleburg; and Mrs. A. H. Taft, of Greenville, N. C.

The funeral service was held from the residence on Oakwood Avenue Monday morning at 10:30. Rev. G. T. Adams conducted the services assisted by Rev. G. F. Smith. The beautiful hymns "Rock of Ages," "Nearer My God to Thee," and "Asleep in Jesus," were sung. The interment was in Oakwood Cemetery and the last resting place was completely hidden under fragrant flowers.

The pall-bearers were Messrs L. A. Mahler, J. B. Timberlake, Jr. G. V. Barnes, Sherwood Higgs, H. W. Ayer and E. H. Baker.

Death of O. J. Carroll.

At Morehead City, at 8 o'clock Friday morning, Oliver Judson Carroll, widely known in North Carolina and with a large acquaintance with traveling men in the South, died suddenly of heart disease. He had long been in feeble health, but continued his work as a commercial traveler. His age was 55, and he was born in Duplin county. He was in the Confederate service. During the last term of President Cleveland he was United States marshal of this district. His son, Dr. N. G. Carroll, went to Morehead City and brought the body here for burial. For 15 years or more Mr. Carroll had made Raleigh his home.

Short of Breath.

Symptoms of heart trouble include short breath, choking, smothering, palpitation, pain in the side, faintness, irregular pulse, sinking spells, and dropsy of feet and ankles. A weak heart means poor circulation, imperfect digestion, loss of appetite, thin, pale blood, exhausted nerve-force and failing strength. Do not neglect your heart. It doesn't pay.

"Shortness of breath and smothering sensations in my chest, accompanied by severe pains in left side and shoulder, and inability to sleep on left side, warned me of the presence of heart trouble. Three bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure entirely relieved me."—H. D. HOLMAN, Lasburgh, Va.

Raleigh Business Directory.

A newspaper whose columns overflow with advertisements of business men has more influence in attracting attention to building up a town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business. Capital and labor go where there is an enterprising community. No power on earth is so strong to build up a town as a newspaper well patronized, and its power should be appreciated.—T. DeWitt Talmage.
